6. Persons Responsible for disclosure

Pursuant to Regulation 30 (5) of the Regulations, the Managing Director and the whole-time Director are severally authorized by the Board for the purpose of determining materiality of an event or information and for the purpose of making disclosures to the Stock Exchange(s) under the Policy.

In their absence the Company Secretary is authorised to determine materiality of an event or information for the purpose of making disclosures to stock exchange(s) under the Policy and Regulations.

7. Guidelines for determining Materiality

The Managing Director or whole-time Director, shall decide on the materiality of the event or information based on input received by them and the guidelines set in the guidance manual approved by the Board.

The quantitative factors which may be considered while determining the materiality of an event or information would be those impacting or likely to impact to the extent of at least 10% on the gross turnover or the net worth or the profitability (profits before tax) of the Company as may be appropriate for the event/information or any other threshold as may be determined by the whole time director in light of the event to be disclosed. The factors to be considered shall be determined based on the last audited financial statements of the Company.

While determining the materiality of events/information, the following criteria will be considered:

- i. the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- ii. the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
- iii. in case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses d(i) and (ii) above are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the board of directors , the event/information is considered material.

8. Guidance on when an event/information has occurred

8.1 An event/information can be said to have occurred

- a. in case of any discussions, negotiations or approval it would depend upon the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval.
- b. in other instances where there is no such discussion, negotiation or approval required viz. in case of natural calamities, disruptions etc, it would depend upon the timing when the Company became aware of the event/information.

- 8.2 In the former [8.1(a)], the events/information can be said to have occurred upon receipt of approval of Board of Directors e.g. further issue of capital by rights issuance and in certain events/information after receipt of approval of both i.e. Board of Directors and Shareholders.

However, considering the price sensitivity involved, for certain events e.g. decision on declaration of dividends etc., disclosure shall be made on receipt of approval of the event by the Board of Directors, pending Shareholder's approval.

- 8.3 In the latter [8.1(b)], the events/information can be said to have occurred when a listed entity becomes aware of the events/information, or as soon as, an officer of the entity has, or ought to have reasonably come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his duties.

9. Contents of communication

The Communication to stock exchanges and public dissemination may contain the minimum details that need to be provided as stipulated by Regulations from time to time. In case, the Company is unable to disclose any specific details for any reason as stipulated by Regulations, it can make the disclosure without such specific details provided an appropriate reasoning for the same forms part of the disclosure.

While care should be exercised in making adequate and appropriate disclosures, it should also be ensured that the disclosure does not result in establishing a false market for the Company's securities.

10. Time of Disclosure

- 10.1 The disclosure of event/s or information specified in Schedule III of the Regulations (except Sub-Para 4) as amended from time to time, shall be made as soon as possible but within 24 hours from the occurrence of the event/ information. However, in cases where the disclosure cannot be made within the stipulated time limit of 24 hours, the Company can disseminate the same after 48 hours provided an explanation for the delay is given.

- 10.2 The disclosure of event/s or information specified in sub-para 4 of Para A of Part-A of Schedule III of the Regulations shall be made within thirty minutes of the conclusion of the Board Meeting.

11. Updation

The Company shall, with respect to the disclosures made pursuant to this Policy, make disclosures updating material developments on a regular basis, till such time the event is resolved/closed, with relevant explanations therefor.

12. Manner of Disclosure:

Any information to be disseminated is required to be given in a separate letter to Stock Exchange(s) and sent vide e-mail/ fax or posted on the electronic platform as specified by the stock exchanges. The Company shall also disclose on its website all such events or information which has been disclosed to stock exchange(s) under this Policy, and such disclosures shall be hosted on the website of the Company for a minimum period of five years and thereafter as per the Company's Archival Policy, as disclosed on its website.
